ANTALIEPTĖ

Antalieptė is a small town in Zarasai district municipality, north-east of Lithuania. Antalieptė is covered with beautiful landscapes: rivers, lakes and peaceful places for hikes. Town has long history and his historical objects.

VILNIUS

Vilnius is the biggest Lithuania's city and the capital, founded in 1323 Population of Vilnius –around 527 thousand The Old Town is the urban monument and one of the largest in Eastern Europe

Vilnius is multilingual city - counted 132 nations in the city
Currency –Euro since 2015 Lithuanian is the oldest living Indo-European tongue

A 2009 survey recognized Vilnius as the greenest capital in Eastern Europe. Furthermore, Vilnius air is the cleanest among all European capital cities.

Soup: Šaltibarščiai—cold pink soup, made from kefir, marinated beetroots, fresh cucumber, hard-boiled egg and greens. Favorite Lithuanians soup in summer!

Snack: Dark fried bread with garlic and melted cheese.

TIPS TO TRY AND SEE

Artworks mounted on the walls of the Literatu street (Literatų gatvė) are dedicated to the literature workers: writers, translators, everyone who has link with Lithuania

Užupis means "the other side of the river" in the Lithuanian language and has been popular within artists for some time, and has been compared to Montmartre in Paris and to Freetown Christiania in Copenhagen, due to its bohemian and laissez-faire atmosphere.

DON'T FORGET

To take your personal documents: passports, IDs and organize visas

To bring with you original agreements with signatures from your sending organization

To organize your trip due to the fixed amount and have in mind not to travel during activity dates.

To collect all recipes, bills, tickets and boarding passes or other proof that we would be able to reimburse
